

BOOKS BY MAIL

The Klamath County Library is pleased to offer home delivery of library materials to any Klamath County adult who is unable to visit the library in person because of a medical condition, disability, or senior non-driver status via our Books By Mail program.

Benefits of Books By Mail services include:

- No overdue fees
- More time to borrow materials
- No shipping costs, ever!

Register yourself or a loved one for Books By Mail today!

Your Klamath County Library card also gets you home access to thousands of digital books and audiobooks, streaming movies, music and more through our online partners! Call us at 541-882-8894 or visit klamathlibrary.org/emedial for more information.
